Dear Sir:- I would be pleased to receive some information regarding the value and history of an Indian silver medal which I have. It is dated 1809 and given by President Madison. I wrote to the Smithsonian Institute and they referred me to you.
I will appreciate any information
you can me.

Yours Very Truly,

Mrs. Charles W. Carter.

Mr. Wood

I wrote Dean
asking for
whether she would be willing to send it for examination

Dear Sir:

Your letter of the 22nd of August in regard to the silver medal given by President ~~Madison~~ received.

I have hesitated in sending the medal, but have decided to do so by Registered Mail, trusting that you will care for it and return
it in good condition.

You may have a customer that would like to purchase the medal.
If so I would consider an offer for it.
Hoping to hear from you at your earliest convenience.

Very truly yours

Mrs. Charles W. Carter.

Dear Madam:

Permit me to acknowledge receipt of the package containing your Indian Peace medal about which you have written me. I have shown this to Mr. Wood and he advises me that the piece is worth approximately twenty-five dollars. We already have a specimen of this size, but if you are willing to accept this amount for it, it is just possible that we can find a purchaser for it if you wish us to do so.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Dear Sir: Your letter of Sept. 8th, 1930.
received. I wish to thank you for the information concerning the Indian Peace Medal.

You are authorized to sell the medal
at a net price to me of twenty five dollars. If you are unable to sell the medal at that price, in a reasonable time, you may return
it to me.

Very truly yours -

Mrs. Charles W. Carter.

Sydney P. Noe, Secy -

Dear Sir: On Sept. 13th 1930, I answered
your letter of Sept. 8th in which you said you thought you could dispose of the Indian Peace Medal, which I had sent to you for your inspection, for twenty five dollars. In my letter I authorized the sale at twenty five dollars - net - to me, giving you a reasonable time for making the sale.

Not having heard from you since that date, I am writing to inquire about it. If not sold within thirty days will you please return the medal to me.

Very truly yours

Mrs. Charles W. Carter

Dear Madam:

Your letter is at hand. I was on the point of writing you that we had found a purchaser who had agreed to take your medal, but who has not yet paid for it. We expect that he will do so within a short time, but if he has not done so within thirty days we will ask for the medal's return and see that it is sent back to you.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Dear Madam:

I am enclosing a cheque for $25.00. This covers the sale of your Indian Peace Medal which you sent us to dispose of, and which you agreed to sell for this price, as I understand from Mr. Noe.

Very truly yours,

Curator.
